A Glimpse on Swahid Smriti Mahavidyalaya

Swahid Smriti Mahavidyalaya is located in the heart of Belsor, a socially, culturally and politically well known village in the West Nalbarii area of Assam, which was established in 1989 and is affiliated to Gauhati University. It was established by a group of people of tremendous vision for the financially poor students of rural area so that those who could not dream of higher education would have the opportunity to achieve a University Degree.

The Untiring effort of the dedicated teaching and non teaching staff and management has turned the college into a leading institution in the academic circle of Assam, which is seen in the previous results and performances of the college. It is indeed a matter of pride that our alumni have attained extraordinary success in their respective fields.

The role of the college is to prepare the rural community to encounter the challenges of the rapidly changing contemporary world.

The college recently accredited by NAAC with 'B' Grade.

Location

This institution is situated near the historically famous temple "Bilbeswar Devalaya". It is traditionally said that this temple was established by the pious king Nagakshya. This college is almost 14 kms away from the district Head Quarter of Nalbari District.

Our Goal

Edward Thing says, "Education is the transmission of life by the living to the living". A.N. Whitehead while supporting the views says, "There is only one subject- matter of education and that is, life in all its manifestation." "In the words of Dr. S. Radhakrishnan, "Education is limited to the imparting of information or the training in skills. It has to give the educated a proper sense of values." So our goal is the organization of acquired habit of such actions, which will fit for the student to his physical and social environments. Vision and Mission Statements with the Strategies of the College
